

Artist Alley Policies

Price

- The table is available for free.
- Artist must be a member of the convention to participate.

Selling

- Artists are allowed to sell only their own items.
- Commissions and immediate portraiture are encouraged.
- Artists are responsible for their own sales tax collection and reports. We will not be collecting sales tax for them, nor will we be reporting for them. We will not, in fact, be handling any monies at all on behalf of the Artist Alley. Free temporary tax IDs are available by calling 800-647-7706.
- While we permit selling at the table, the primary purpose of the table is for demos and artist interaction with the public. We really don't want the Alley to be an Art Dealer's Row; we do not wish to compete with the Dealer's Room in any way, shape or form. Large quantities of saleable items should be sold in the Dealer's Room, not in the Alley.

Times

- Blocks of times will be made available depending on the amount of interest, number of tables, and participant availability.
- Blocks of times will not be less than ½ hour and not be more than 2 hours. Each participant will be given at least an hour between each block, in order to prevent demo burnout. Some larger demos may be given exceptions to this due to setup and take down time.
- Hours:

Thursday	4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Sunday	10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Includes:

- 2D art techniques including painting and drawing
- 3D art techniques including chain mail demos and jewelry making
- Possibly sculpting
- Any other forms of demonstrable art including makeup and fabric art

Other

- NWC is not providing any security for items in Artist Alley. Any items brought to the Alley, including items for sale or items for demos, are the sole responsibility of the owner. The Alley is located in a hallway, there are no locks available. We assume and accept no liability for any of it.
- Remember, we really want to emphasize demos and interaction!

Art can be seen in the Show, but it's up close & personal in the Alley.
