Vice Chair

Hotel update - Room block has been exceeded, woo! 1850 is the required block - 1856 as of Thursday. The Web team requests a notification email for website changes that need to be made regarding reservations, etc. The Hotel is sold out!

Parking price additional tax - there is a new tax on the hotel parking, we cannot get out of it, parking price will now be more. We need to find a way to communicate this to the general membership, so they know how much they will be charged for parking onsite.

How to contact the hotel during con - Any hotel changes that affect the convention, go through the office. Do not reach out to the hotel directly. Pat or Rob or the office are the only ones permitted to contact the hotel directly. If you have an issue with your room, you are allowed to contact the hotel then.

Lost and found is no longer kept by NWC, it's going to the hotel after con.

Post-con survey - Would like this to happen this year targeting people who picked up badges. # of positions onboarded so far - 208 people, 236 positions - over 50 new people in one month!

Even if you pre-registered or have a Pro membership, you must go through the staff kiosk to be properly onboarded as staff.

Offboarding - Plans are in place to develop a procedure to offboard anyone not considered a year round position.

Business / Treasurer

We have money! And are spending it, too. All dealers have paid! Interest is still going via the higher interest rate that Business negotiated. Very comfortable with where we are at this point.

Staff can pay for registration at the meeting today.

% of Budget spent and income - about 40% spent. If we're careful, we can make a profit this year.

Dates for Volunteer picnic - July 28th 10am–3pm at Steel Lake Park Shelter #1, Federal Way.

Monthly gaming meetups to happen in Issaquah, more info coming soon.

LAW - Jeanine presenting - origins; mission statement originally "We are our own entertainment." Now: here for community, build community around science, SF, Fantasy, Horror ... now it's more an anti harassment statement ... thought we were done, then added Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity statements. But then realized we needed a Code of Conduct. To protect us, our professional guests, our members. This translates to us that we need to support all of these and each other. No one can know it all, but what you can do is support each other. Listen to those who bring a problem, Assure them that you're listening, Walk them down to someone who can help them. You can't just say "you should go down to the office." In the minds of a member, they have reported something to Staff. That Staff is you. (The LAW poster is attached at the end of these minutes).

Lead with empathy. People will not have been eating or sleeping adequately, there is a lot of neurodivergence in our community. Be kind.

Policies and Procedures

Proposed Changes, March 2024

With the assumption that the Norwescon Policies and Procedures are a living document that should be reviewed and revisited to align with our ever-evolving convention and community -- as time allows over the course of the year.

The following have been reviewed by the Executive Team and are to be voted on in bulk at our March Executive meeting.

Vote to amend the policies and procedures via additions or deletions as follows:

~~POLICY: Ties for Elected Officers Roles: If there is a tie in any race, the candidates are given 48 hours to decide if they wish to proceed with a re-vote. The only option for any candidate is to continue their candidacy or withdraw. No random mechanism (coin flip, dice roll, etc.) may be used to decide the winner. If only one candidate decides to continue at the end of that period, the position will go to that candidate. If there is more than one candidate that wishes to continue their candidacy, a re-vote will occur between those who wish to continue a coin flip or other random mechanism will be used to decide the winner.~~

~~POLICY: Ties for GoH Selection Committee: If three or more candidates are tied for the GoH Selection Committee positions, those candidates are given 48 hours to decide if they wish to proceed with a re-vote. The only option for any candidate is to continue their candidacy or withdraw. No random mechanism (coin flip, dice roll, etc.) may be used to decide the winner. Withdrawals, if any, will be accepted in the order received until only two candidates remain. Those two remaining candidates will serve on the GoH Selection Committee. At the end of the 48-hour period, if more than two candidates decide to continue, a re-vote will occur with all candidates who wish to continue.~~

In the case that the Convention Services Director is unable to perform their duties, the Convention Services Assistant (the second) or another department member appointed by the Convention Services Director shall assume all responsibilities as outlined in the policy, with the approval of the Chair.

Norwescon on-site operational activities fall to the responsibility of the Convention Services Director, who acts as the operations head of the convention.

The purpose of these meetings is to go over the daily charges to the hotel, sign off on charges, and to discuss any issues as necessary. The Vice-Chair should also meet with the hotel during these meetings. The Convention Services Director may appoint a proxy in their place but one of these persons must be able to sign the contract (see "Business - Authorized Signatures") and have been pre-designated to do so with the hotel. It is suggested that the Business Director or Chair be an alternate. If the Convention Services Director is not present, any issues arising from these meetings must be reported to them as soon as possible. The Convention Services Director shall inform the Chair and/or Programming Director of issues that may arise. This policy is not intended to conflict with or otherwise change, update, and/or revoke the ability of the Chair to remove and/or revoke a member or attendee's membership.

There may be circumstances where immediate action must be taken in the removal of an invited guest or member/attendee when advice or direction comes from the hotel or law enforcement. In such cases, the Convention Services Director must act accordingly and the Chair must be informed as soon as possible. This is the only exception to the removal of guests or attendees. If the Convention Services Director, for any reason, is unavailable the Convention Services Manager on Duty and/or designated 2nd can act in their proxy; however all attempts to wake, reach and/or communicate with the Convention Service Director (and designated 2nd if applicable) must be made before the determination proxy is granted.
